Wants a Situation,

As a wet-nurse, a young woman with a good breast of milk, and in perfect health. Enquire of the printer. sept. 9.

100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va.; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number; among them—a new bear-skin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

I will give the above reward for apprehending and securing said fellow so that I get him again, and reasonable charges if brought home.

Notice,

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tunners, Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RATCLIFFE,
Fairfax Court-House, Va.

Va. at Cold Stream Mills, and that he is recorded as a free man in the cleak's office, at Romney, Va. Said mulatto man is about 23 years of age, 6 feet high, stout and well made, has lost the first joint of the fore finger on his left hand.

The owner is desired to come prove property, pay charges, and take him away, otherwise, he will be disposed of as the law directs.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly: had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. Missouri and Illinois Bounty Lands

THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment he can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. As I am a large dealer in Military Bounty Lands, I can supply any number that may be required.

The number of deaths in the city of Baltimore for the 24 hours ending on the morning of the 22d. were 15, of which number 9 died of malignant fever.

The number of deaths reported by the Board of Health at Baltimore for the 24 hours ending on the 23d in the morning is 13—of which number 11 died of the Malignant fever.

For the same term ending on the 24th.—six of the fever.

The Rutland Herald, in speaking of the recent state election in Vermont, says—there was an unusual degree of pleasantness and good feelings existing, and but little of the bitterness of party, which has heretofore prevailed. Governor Galusha, Lieut. Governor Brigham, and Treasurer Swan, are undoubtedly re-elected.

There is considerable electioneering in the new State of Alabama for the Offices to be filled at the first popular Election.—William W. Bibb is a candidate for the office of Governor, and is opposed by Marmeduke Williams. It is probable the former will be elected. There are also two candidates for the Office of Representative in Congress; of whom John Crowell, the Delegate in the last Congress from the territorial government, is one.

NEW INVENTION.

For a few days past, Mr. Scott, of this town, has exhibited a machine for making vessels' blocks, which appears to perform the operation with great rapidity and exactness. GREAT FIRE AT MAYSVILLE.

A Cincinnatti paper of Sept. 7th, which came to hand this day, says, We learn with extreme regret, that a considerable part of Maysville was consumed by fire on Friday night last. It commenced at the upper end of Front-street, about midnight, and was not extinguished until after day light the next morning. There were, we understand, above a dozen houses destroyed, among them the post-office. What the loss is estimated at, we have not heard. It must, however, be very heavy.

"MURDER WILL OUT."

A man named Robert Trip, an inhabitant of Moorestown, in this county, was committed to jail in this village a few days ago, charged with having murdered his wife, about 15 years since. The circumstances attending this horrid transaction have been brought to light by the daughter of Trip, who was at that time about 14 years of age. She states that her father came home and was angry because there was not a fire—her step mother told him she would make a fire, and while stooped down for this purpose, Trip struck her across the back with a hand-spike, and she fell on the floor. Trip and his daughter put her upon the bed—medical assistance was called, but she died the next day.—The old man told his daughter if she made any disclosures he would serve her in the same way Trip is now about 60 years of age. He resided at Moorestown at the time of the murder, where he has continued ever since.

Providence, September 11.

FROM SPAIN.

We have been permitted to transcribe for publication the following interesting abstract of a letter, dated Cadiz, July 26, from a highly intelligent American merchant, who has resided in that place for nearly twelve years:—

"The Florida treaty is not yet ratified by the king, and it is quite uncertain whether it will be, although I am rather inclined to think that it will be eventually, because I do not see what else Spain can do, under present circumstances. A war with the United States would produce to her the loss of her revolted colonies, and perhaps of some that are not in a state of revolt: of this they are somewhat aware, but not so much so as their own interest would require. It is difficult to persuade the Spanish government that the age of Charles Vth. has passed away. The dismission and disgrace of the marquis de Casa Yrujo I consider an unfavorable circumstance. It is reported and generally believed that Don Onis, the late minister to the U. States, and maker of the treaty, is to succeed him as Secretary of State.—This might be supposed an indication of an intention on the part of the government to make good the stipulations of the treaty, as it certainly looks like an approval of his conduct in making it, but those who are deepest in the secrets of his cabinet, and best acquainted with the policy that governs it, consider this in a very different light, and as a circumstance by no means indicative of such an intention on the part of the king of Spain. With regard to this treaty there is much behind the curtain; the object of Spain is and has been to gain time, under the expectation that she may be better able by and bye to resist our pretensions and be more at leisure to attend to us. This idea will furnish a clue to the diplomatic labyrinth in which our relations with Spain have been so long involved, and if the treaty is ratified, it will be because necessity compels them to it, and not from any conscientious regard to the justice of our demands, or any excess of good faith on their part.

'The king is at present taking the mineral Baths at Salcidon, and will not return to Madrid probably before the 10th of August, the period of the exchange of the ratifications, stipulated in the treaty, expiring on the 22d of the same month, all doubt and uncertainty must soon be cleared up. The grand expedition destined for Buenos Ayres, will probably leave here by the middle of September next. The greatest activity prevails in the embarkation of the artillery, stores, &c. It will consist of from 16 to 18,000 men, and has already cost upwards of 9,000,000 dollars; nearly all the transports are already in the bay. An expedition consisting of about 3000 men, sailed hence on Sunday last, destination unknown, but supposed for Pensacola and Havana. A dangerous disaffection was lately discovered among the troops destined for America, and which was only silenced and put down by the spirited and prompt measures of General O'Donnell—its object was to restore the Constitution and Cortes.'

Savannah, September 16.

HEALTH OF SAVANNAH.

From the list of burials pubished in this day's paper, it will be seen that there were 20 deaths in the city and suburbs, from the 6th to the 13th, inclusive, a period of 8 days. Nine of these took place at the poor house in the suburbs, and the subjects were all strangers, and fell the victims of the fever natural to the climate. Within the limits of the city there have been 7 deaths by fever—5 of the subjects were strangers, and 2 natives. Several of these cases, however, were contracted in the country and brought to the city in the last stages. From this statement it will be seen that the city of Savannah is singularly blessed with health. From her local situation, being high and dry, and the success attending our attempts to drain the low lands in our neighborhood—the heavy rains which have fallen during the past months, have been scarcely felt in their consequences here.

Much sickness, however, prevails in the surrounding country, especially in the vicinity of low grounds and contiguous to bodies of fresh water.

Philadelphia, Sept. 23.

NEW-YORK HEALTH REPORT.

The alarm, we may say terror that pervaded the city of N. York, from Thursday last, induced the Board of Health on Monday to make a report of some length, in order, if possible by shewing the actual state of the city, to allay the fears of the people. The Board express their convictions, that there is not a sufficient cause for the alarm that prevails at this time. The Board are mindful of, and they hold themselves to the engagement they have made, that all the information they possess concerning the malignant fever, shall be fully and promptly communicated to the public.

'Every case (the report proceeds,) of that fever which has existed in the city, and which has come to the knowledge of the Board, has already been published, except that of two seamen on board the ship Florentine, from Martinique. That vessel, after performing a quarantine of thirty days was permitted to anchor in the stream of the east river, where two of her seamen were taken ill. They were sent to the hospital on Staten-Island, and died there of the yellow fever, and the ship was removed to the quarantine ground. Another seaman (whose case had been reported) came up from quarantine during the last illness of the late health officer, and died on board a sloop at one of the wharves in this city. Except those three persons, there has not been any one who has taken the disease out of the district designated by the Board in their resolution of the 6th instant.

'Those who having taken the disorder there, have sickened and died in other parts of the city, have in no instance communicated it to their nurses or attendants, or to any one else.

'The infected district, through the indefatigable exertions of his honor the mayor, is now entirely evacuated. The poorer inhabitants have been removed, and are maintained at the public expense at Fort Richmond, on Staten Island: which has been put at the disposal of the board for this purpose, by his excellency the governor, and the commissioners of fortifications.

'The sick have been sent to fort Stevens, near Hurl Gate. The entrances of the streets leading through the infected district have been fenced up, and the vessels which were at the adjacent wharves have been removed, and anchored in the stream. The Board have not been unmindful of other precautions. The corporation have placed under their direction the city inspector and all his officers; had the most active means have been taken to correct nuisances, to purify such places as seemed likely to generate or exasperate disease, and generally to do whatever might tend to preserve the health of the city. The effect of these precautions is already felt. Not a single new case of malignant fever was reported yesterday or today, and the Board indulge the most lively hope, that through the divine blessing, the calamity of pestilence will yet be averted from this city. They do not mean to assert that the danger has passed away, or that vigilance and circumspection are no longer requisite, but they think that the reasons for hope, are now more weighty than those for apprehension.

'The watch has been doubled round the deserted houses, the fire department and the police will be particularly vigilant, nor will any thing be omitted for the security of property in that neighborhood. But the Board most earnestly caution all their fellow citizens to abstain from entering the infected district; an imprudence which has already proved fatal to several, and which if repeated may render unavailing every exertion to prevent the spreading of disease.

'The Board take this opportunity of refuting an assertion which has been sometimes made, that although they make faithful reports of such cases as come to their knowledge, yet that their accounts cannot be implicitly relied on, since some physicians neglect their duty, and omit to make reports to the Board. Whenever these rumors have been such as to admit of investigation, the Board have traced them, and have uniformly found them to be without foundation. Nor have they any reason to believe that any members of the medical profession, are so regardless of their duty and reputation, as to become instrumental in deceiving the public at such a season as this. The manner in which the Board is constituted, and the number of persons now actively employed under its direction, render a deception of this kind extremely difficult, and afford additional grounds for believing that their reports contain, what the Board intend they ever shall contain, the truth and the whole truth.

'By order of the Board,
'J. MORTON, Sec'ry.'

From the Manchester Exchange Herald.

FURHER PARTICULARS RELATIVE TO THE RIOTS AT MANCHESTER.

Soon after twelve o'clock, the magistrates and a body of constables repaired to the ground to which the brigaded reformers had marched, and, in consequence of depositions made before several of his majesty's justices of the peace, by many of the most respectable inhabitants of the towns of Manchester and Salford, in which they stated their apprehension of riot and tumult, as the probable consequence of such an assembly of persons from distant townships, marched thither under banners so explicit of rebellious intentions, the riot act was read, but it did not appear to be much attended to by the infatuated crowd; who continued to laugh and scowl the constables, &c. in attendance

At one o'clock, another procession passed the exchange, escorting Hunt to the place of meeting; for the great man, perhaps to enhance his consequence, made the would be legislators wait for him, although their advertisements stated that the chair would be taken at twelve o'clock.—The leader of this band bore a large club, and he was followed by some hundreds of men and boys, who marched in columns with military step, to the music of a regular band, dressed in grey uniforms. By the colors which were displayed, the van at least were from Oldham. After them was borne a board, elevated on a pole, and as if in downright mockery, on both sides was painted "order, order." Almost immediately before the barouche in which Hunt rode, was borne the same flag and cap of liberty which were displayed on his first visit to Manchester. On the box of the carriage stood the main pivot of mischief; several other persons were seated in it, but we did not learn their names. The carriage was followed by many hundred men and boys in the order above described, with colors flying. They marched through Deansgate, in which, and in all the other streets through which they passed, the shops were all shut up.

On arriving at the hustings, Mr. Hunt and his friends ascended it, amidst the shouts of the greatest assemblage of people ever collected at one point in Manchester. We understand the Travelling Orator had began to address the Reformers, when, an hour having expired after the reading of the Riot Act, the warrants of the magistrates were carried into effect. The yeomanry cavalry, in support of the police officers armed with warrants from the magistrates, dashed through the crowd, surrounded the hustings, and arrested Henry Hunt, Joseph Johnston, John Tyas, Geo. Swift, John Thacker Sexton, Robert Wild, Thomas Taylor, Mary Waterworth, Sarah Hargreaves, and Eliza Grant who were carried off the field, and sent immediately, under escort, to the New Bailey Prison, whilst the caps of liberty and the banners of rebellion were destroyed and trampled in the dirt along with many hundreds of persons, who were thrown down in the consequent confusion. At the moment the seizure was made by the Yeomanry, the 15th Hussars, and the 31st and 88th regiments of foot, brigade of artillery, and the Cheshire Yeomanry, made their appearance on the ground, which was soon cleared of the immense body of people who had so lately occupied it with shouts of triumph. In carrying this into effect, we are concerned to state, that several persons were killed, trampled to death upon the spot, and many others wounded, some by the sabres of the cavalry, and others by the trampling of the horses.

At the moment of surrounding the hustings, a shower of brick-bats and paving stones were hurled at the yeomanry, several of whom were struck, one so severely, that he dropped the reins and his horse fell, by which he was pitched off, and his scull was fractured. He was carried to the Infirmary, and at 4 o'clock all hopes of his recovery was fled. Besides this gentleman, there were seventeen other patients brought in from the scene of action, (one of whom is since dead,) and 30 other persons, whose wounds being slight, they were dressed and sent home. Besides the above, we understand that six other persons were killed, one of whom was Mr. Ashworth, of the Market-place, who was on duty as a special constable.

In the course of the afternoon, the following persons were taken into custody, in addition to those taken up in the field, viz:—Valentine Faulkner, James Johnson, Wm. Billinge, Wm. Bolton, Edward Feerins, Keaugh, James Moorehouse, Jno. Knight, Isaac Murray, Thomas Ashton, Thomas Worthington, A. Whitaker, Wm. Ashworth, Moses O'Hara, Jamer Makin, Thomas Johnson, John Wild, Anthony Jefferson, &c. &c. A great number of rioters, from various parts of the town, were escorted in the evening, by the cavalry, to New Baily.

The people, who had marched in town by thousands, seemed unwilling to depart home for several hours; but with a view to the preservation of the peace, the magistrates ordered all the public-houses to be cleared at a very early hour in the evening. This had a tendency to abate the storm of confusion; but, at 8 o'clock, the mob was so outrageous in the vicinity, of the New Cross, that the Riot Act was read, after the constables had exercised the greatest possible patience in the endeavor to disperse the tumultuous multitude.

There is every reason to fear that the military will be obliged to act in a way which every friend of humanity will deplore, for the forbearance they have shown has been tried to the extreme. At half past nine o'clock, when this paper went to press, we were in possession of little more than rumor—The result can only be given in a second edition.

A second edition of the same paper mentions:

Excepting the riot at the New Cross before mentioned, at which two men were shot, and taken to the infirmary, where one of them had a leg taken off, the night was passed in comparative peace. Indeed, in the centre of the town, there was almost an uncommon silence, only broken by the distant trampling of the patrolling cavalry.

The reports of numbers killed at that unusually riotous place, the New Cross in the tumult last night, are so vague and contradictory, that we refrain to repeat them.

In our first edition, we had trusted to what we deemed a correct authority, and stated that six persons had died in the Infirmary yesterday, of their wounds; we are happy to learn this morning, that only one had died there, and that the gentleman belonging to the Manchester yeomanry corps, who was thought dying at 4 o'clock yesterday, and whose actual death was mentioned with confidence last night, has passed a comparatively good night.

In surrounding the hustings, and in dispersing the meeting yesterday the spirit and promptitude of action so admirably displayed by the yeomanry cavalry, was accompanied by a temper and forbearance which has been spoken of by persons of all parties in terms of approbation.

To the list of prisoners taken to the New Baily, we are enabled to add the following:

Hunt, Johnston, Knight, Moorhouse, Saxton, and the other leaders of the reformers, who were taken yesterday, have passed the night in separate cells. They have had leisure for reflection, which it is to be hoped, will prove salutary.

We are glad to perceive by the above, that the private statements are given with some exaggeration, owing to the difficulty of collecting facts, from the great disorder and confusion which prevailed in Manchester. The accounts come down it will be observed, but to 9 o'clock on Tuesday morning.

Liverpool Markets, Saturday evening, August 14.

COTTON has experienced a very steady demand throughout the week; the descriptions most in demand have been Orleans, Boweds and Brazils, which descriptions have advanced ¼ to a ½d per lb. other qualities have fully supported their quotations; certain descriptions of Sea Islands have improved ¼ to 1d per lb. Yesterday were brought forward by auction 100 Demeraras and 260 Barbadoes; the former brought 17¼ a 18¼ for good and fine, and the latter 13¼ a 15 ordinary to good. The private sales consist of 180 Sea Islands 2s 3½d a 3s; 4750 Boweds 12½ to 15d; 150 Tennessee 13½d to 16½d up to 17d; 300 Demeraras 15 to 19d; 270 Pernams 18 to 19½d; 1250 Maranhams 17d to 18d; 280 Bahias 17¼ to 18d; 80 Minas 13¼ to 17d; 20 W. Indies 14d; 250 Carthagenas 12d to 12½d; 180 Surats 8d to 13d; and 1680 Bengals at 7¼ to 9d per lb. comprising, including the public sales, 11,300 bags.

There is good demand for New-York and Boston Ashes, for the Irish and foreign market. Yesterday 200 bris. of pot and pearls were brought forward by auction which brought 34s to 35s 8d for the former and 39s 6d for the latter. Dyewoods go off slowly at about former prices. In Logwood, the sales consist of 40 tons of Jamaica at 6l. 2s. 6d.; yesterday a quantity of St. Domingo was offered by auction, but not sold, not more than 6l. 12s. 6d. being offered; a lot of Campeachy has been sold off the quay at 6l. 17s. 6d. Nothing of consequence done in rough brimstone, and prices steady. Galipoli Oil is looking up and 79l. to 80l. is now demanded. Fish Oils are less inquired for, but prices have not given way.

In Coffee there has been a fair extent of business, but at very unsettled prices, tho' upon the whole we may note an advance of 3s. to 4s per cwt.

Naval Stores.—2250 bbls. of Turpentine have been brought forward by auction this week, which have obtained 12 to 13s. per cwt. There has also been much business done in Tar at 15s 9d to 16s.; thick rosin in demand The total sales of all descriptions amount to near 5000 bbls. Rozin and Pitch as last reported.

The transactions in Tobacco have been pretty extensive, but principally confined to Kentucky stemmed at 5d to 5½d. per lb. There has been also a fair demand for Virginia leaf: for the home trade and for the Irish market, at rather improving rates.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pobick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pobick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be goverued by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS. { Rev. Wm Hawley, Washington, Rev. Wm. H. Wilmer, Alexandria, Rev. Oliver Norris, Alexandria, Rev. Reuel Keith, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

If any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New-York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publecation will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines. But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity which teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository.

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.

TERMS OF THE WORK.

A volume of the Repertory shall consist of twelve numbers, of which one shall be published on the first day of every month, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, stitched in blue, and attended with a table of contents.

The paper used in the work shall be good, and the typography executed with the greatest care.

The price of a volume is two dollars, payable in advance; to such as omit the advance, two dollars and fifty cents.

It is designed to enlarge the size of the work, without increasing the price, as soon as one thousand subscribers shall be obtained.

Communications and remittances may be directed to any of the editors, post paid

Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers, shall receive a sixth copy gratis.

The first number may be expected in the month of July. June 26
